10th Annual Ohio Adult Sibling Conference

Purpose The Ohio Adult Sibling Conference celebrates its 10th year of addressing the needs and concerns of adult siblings who have brothers/ sisters with a disability. Siblings with and without disabilities and other interested individuals are welcome to join us for an opportunity to meet and partner with other siblings, become better informed decision makers, and gain the tools to prepare and secure the future health and well-being of individuals with a disability and their families.

Conference Highlights

- Siblings as Care Providers in a Medicaid Environment
- Siblings of people with Autism
- The role of siblings during transition periods: Challenges and Opportunities
- Understanding and Building the Sibling Relationship
- Self-advocacy activities for siblings with a disability
- Regional Sibling Gatherings

Continuing Education

Continuing education units/ certificates are pending for Social Work, LPC, Marriage and Family Therapy, and Developmental Disabilities.

Featured Speakers

Judy Karasik is an editor, writer, and consultant for foundations, nonprofits, and the government. Her work has appeared in The New York Times and The Boston Globe. She co-authored The Ride Together with her brother Paul, a graphic novelist, who has Autism.

Cynthia Chambers is an Assistant Professor and Program Coordinator of Special Education at East Tennessee State University. Dr. Chambers has focused her research and practice efforts on sibling-related issues across the lifespan and has noticed similarities with her brother who has mental health issues. Dr. Chambers founded Siblings United, and is the Co-Chair of Research for the Sibling Leadership Network.

Vicki Snyder is the Director of Children's Options for the Lucas County Board of DD and has been a special education administrator, and intervention specialist. Vicki currently serves on various committees that help support and advocate for individuals with disabilities. She has presented locally and nationally on numerous areas in the field of special education. Most importantly, she is proud of her big sister Penny.

Lew Hurst is the Superintendent of the Seneca County Board of DD. He has spearheaded self advocacy and self-determination efforts across Ohio. Mr. Hurst is an active board member with the Ohio Self Determination Association.

Peggy Martin is the Family Advocate for the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities and a parent of a daughter with a disability. As a tireless family advocate, Ms. Martin has helped to pioneer a variety of services and supports for people with disabilities in Ohio.
